

EIGHTY-SIXTH DISTRICT.

Bexar county.—Charles L. Wurzbach, of San Antonio, was born in Ulanuheim, Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany, November, 1834; emigrated to this country in 1844, and moved to San Antonio in 1849; entered the Confederate army in June, 1862, serving with Sibley's Brigade in New Mexico and Louisiana, and as A. D. C. to General J. M. Hawes, in the defenses of Galveston, until the close of the war; commenced the practice of law in San Antonio, in 1869, and was city attorney of that city from 1872 to 1875; was a member of the House of Representatives in the Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Seventeenth Legislatures, and re-elected to the Eighteenth, as a Democrat.